Please keep all those who are sick in our parish family in your prayers, especially Cliff Chase, Pat Dunleavy, and Olga Montoya.

Our prayers are with them, and all those who care for them.

Today we celebrate Christ’s ascension into heaven and his commissioning of the disciples to carry on his mission in the world. First we hear Luke’s description of those events in the opening verses of the Acts of the Apostles. Next, we hear words of encouragement and guidance from the Letter to the Ephesians. Finally, we hear Mark’s account of the Ascension, foretelling the mighty words and acts the Christian community would do in Jesus’ name.

Together these scriptures give as a vision of the mission of the Church of Jesus Christ—a mission statement of sorts. Like mission statements in our parishes and corporations, this mission statement can help us set priorities and focus our activities. It can guide and support us as we strive to continue Christ’s messianic mission on earth.

Our Rectory Office will be closed on Monday, May 25th for Memorial Day.
Summer Bible Camp is open to all children who are completing Kindergarten through Grade 6 this year. Registration forms are available in the Faith Formation Office or the Rectory Office. Please contact Rachael Smit at 650-588-8175 if you have any questions about the program.

MEMORIAL DAY MASS

You are all invited to spend time this Memorial Day at your Catholic Cemeteries and join in remembrance and prayer for all who are buried in these sacred grounds. The Catholic Cemeteries of the Archdiocese of San Francisco invites you to share Memorial Day Mass on Monday, May 25th, at 11:00 a.m. Mass will be celebrated at Holy Cross Catholic Cemetery in Colma by Archbishop George Niederauer in Holy Cross Mausoleum. A shuttle will be available from the front gate from 10:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. For more information you may call Christine Stinson at 650-756-2060.

VATICAN ACCEPTS RESIGNATION of SAN FRANCISCO AUXILIARY BISHOP IGNATIUS WANG

Pope Benedict XVI has accepted the resignation letter of San Francisco Auxiliary Bishop Ignatius C. Wang, which was submitted to the Vatican by Bishop Wang on his 75th birthday in February.

Bishop Wang, who has served in the Archdiocese of San Francisco for 35 years, was appointed auxiliary bishop in December 2002 by Pope John Paul II. At that time, he became the first priest of Chinese heritage to be named a U.S. bishop.

San Francisco Archbishop George H. Niederauer said, “On behalf of the entire archdiocese, I thank Bishop Wang for his decades of service to the local Church as a priest and bishop. His dedication and service have been a blessing to the priests and people of the archdiocese and our many ethnic communities, particularly the Chinese Catholic community. Truly, Bishop Wang has been a hardworking and generous servant of the Church.”

The news that Bishop Wang’s resignation letter had been accepted was announced May 16th at a Mass at St. Mary’s Cathedral celebrating Bishop Wang’s golden jubilee as a priest and his Episcopal retirement. In retirement, Bishop Wang will continue to live in San Francisco.
