Third Sunday of Easter
I will praise you Lord, for you have rescued me.
Psalm 30

THE THEME OF THE LITURGY:
Do we genuinely give honor to the name of Jesus by being his namesakes in the world today, or do we remain silent?

First Reading: Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41
Brought before the Sanhedrin, the apostles give witness to Jesus Christ.

Second Reading: Revelation 5:11-14
In his vision, John sees all in heaven and on earth. Give honor and glory to the one on the throne and to the Lamb.

Gospel: John 21:1-19
Jesus appears to the disciples by the sea of Tiberias.

Our Second Collection this Sunday is for our Helping Hands Fund.
Our Second Collection next Sunday is for our Catholic Home Missions.
Thank you for your generous support!

DAY OF RECOLLECTION
Contemplatives of St. Joseph

“CHRIST IS CALLING YOU”
Mass, Reconciliation, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Conferences, Vespers, Special Blessing with St. Joseph Oil and much more.
Dear Friends,

When I met with the Archbishop at his residence in San Francisco on March 27th, I knew something was up. What I did not know was that he would be asking me to leave Mater Dolorosa and become the new pastor of Star of the Sea in San Francisco. I remember the only thing I could tell him, at the time, was that I would go under the vow of obedience.

I don’t want to leave here. I did not ask to go to Star of the Sea. In the past five years that I’ve been here, I have come to love this place and I call it home. I so wanted to be a part of the parish’s 50th anniversary celebrations next year. But those were my plans, not the Archbishop’s, nor God’s plans for me.

I leave Mater Dolorosa with a heavy heart. I wanted to do so much more here, so my work remains unfinished. I hope and pray when you get a new pastor on July 1st, that he will love you as much as I have come to love you.

I will miss all of you. I hope you show the same love and respect for my successor as you’ve shown towards me.

Thank you, one and all, for everything you’ve done for me and the church. I will never forget all your many kindnesses. In you I truly saw the face of Christ. Thank you for putting up with my faults and failings and for making me feel like one of you. I hope our paths cross many times in the future.

Have a great week!

Father Brian
