THE THEME OF THE LITURGY:
Take up your cross, and be my disciple.

First Reading: Wisdom 9:13–18b
Who can ever know God’s counsel unless God gives wisdom and sends the Holy Spirit from on high?

Second Reading: Philemon 9–10, 12–17
Paul asks Philemon to accept back his slave Onesimus, not as a slave but as a brother.

To be a disciple of Jesus one must carry one’s own cross and renounce all possessions.

Dear Mater Dolorosa Parishioners,

My, how quickly the time passes. Already the summer months have left us, and our younger parishioners are returning to school. That means that, I too, am getting ready to leave Mater Dolorosa and return to school in Rome on September 12th. My short time at our parish has been a wonderful first assignment for a newly ordained priest. It has truly been a grace to be around so many people whose lives have been transformed by Jesus Christ. I will be sad to leave our friendships will remain. To paraphrase St. Monica, the mother of St. Augustine, we will remember each other at the altar of the Lord.

God bless you all,
Fr. David Schunk
