HOPE AND LIFE

Today’s readings tell the story of two widows. The first reading relates the plight of the widow with whom the prophet Elijah stayed; the Gospel tells about the widow of Nain. In each story, the widow’s only son had died. For people who lived in these cultures, the son was the only support of a widow, and the carrying on of the family name by the son was equal to immortality. A widow whose only son has died could lose all hope.

Elijah and Jesus are the restorers of hope; they bring the sons back to life. Saint Paul was metaphorically raised from the dead when he experienced the conversion and call from God that he describes in today’s second reading.

What are Christians called to do today? We may not be able to raise the dead, but perhaps we can rekindle hope for a single parent. We may not be able to convert a persecutor like Paul, but if we speak the gospel openly and gently with our lives, we might touch a life with the Good News.

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

Congratulations to Level 4/5 at 6:00 p.m. for their highest donation to Operation Rice Bowl. Congratulations to Mrs. Carol Duanas who completed her Basic Catechist Certification. Thank you to all who supported the CFF program for this past school year. We had 126 students, with 21 young teens who were confirmed on May 12th and 23 children who received the Holy Communion for the first time on May 4th. There were 13 classes with continuing faith formation and sacramental preparation classes. Some of the students are now active in music ministry and altar serving. Our parish is very blessed with dedicated catechists who continuously pass on our Catholic faith. It’s been another faith filled school year!

Registration for the 2013-2014 CFF school year are now being accepted. Early registration enables us to assure your child a place in our program. Registration forms for families currently enrolled were provided in May. Families new to our program should call the CFF office at 650-588-8175 or the rectory office at 650-583-4131 for the registration materials. You may also get more information from http://www.mdsf.org/ccd/ccd.htm#top. The CFF office will be closed in June and July, please call to make an appointment if you need to speak with Mrs. Smit or Mrs. Cepeda.

Question of the Week:

What sights move you to the kind of pity that Jesus felt when he saw the grieving Mother? What do you do when you are moved with pity?

ADVERTISE IN OUR BULLETIN

Many of you have inquired about personal advertisements in the back of our bulletin. Our publishing company, J.S. Paluch, is now making that possible. Our parishioners may advertise garage sales, items or cars for sale, or publicity for small business. In addition, you may express congratulations to a graduate, publish a happy birthday greeting, an anniversary blessing, and many other family events. Some people may want to announce large parties, weddings or baptism blessings. The rates are reasonable, but the personal ads are based on a first-come, first-served basis, as space allows. You will need Internet access in order to upload your ad to the publishing company and deadlines will be observed. A small percentage of the revenue goes back to Mater Dolorosa. Please see the flyer in the vestibule for more details or for further information, please call 1-800-566-6170 and ask for “CELEBRATION ANNOUNCEMENTS”.
