Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JUNE 21, 2015

Job 38:1, 8-11; Psalm: 107; 2 Corinthians 5:14-17: Mark 4:35-41

THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

Questions of the Week:

Sometimes when we arrive at church to celebrate Mass on Sunday morning, we are often distracted by many things. This Gospel reading reminds us of what Eucharist is all about. The breaking of the bread and pouring out of the wine remind us once again of how Jesus’ body was broken on the cross and how his blood was spilled for us. Now we are his body on earth. And we are nourished by his Eucharistic presence among us.

How would you describe the difference the Eucharist makes in your life?
What can you do to help others appreciate the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ?
