Isaiah 66:10-14; 13:1; Psalm 66; Galatians 6:14-18; Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

PEACE

The greeting of peace at Mass adds substance to a message of today’s readings: peace is relational. When we greet in peace the person near us at Mass, we share the touch of a handshake or embrace, sincere eye contact, and friendly words.

The scriptures speak of a similar peace. The first reading from Isaiah describes the peace of the holy city, Jerusalem, a place of prosperity and comfort where the “LORD’s power shall be known to his servants” (Isaiah 66:14c).

The Christian understanding of peace changes slightly. Paul writes of the “peace and mercy” on all who are created anew. Jesus describes a feeling of peace that will rest on those who accept his disciples and their message.

Peace is both an absence of strife and a personal blessing. May we always and sincerely bring peace to our own lives as we share it with others.

Please pick up registration form and information from the vestibule, the rectory or CFF Offices and the school lobby. For more information about our Faith Formation Program or any of the CFF events/activities, please contact Felisa Cepeda at 650-588-8175. Finding God in all the activities that we do is one way to keep our children and families learning and growing in our faith. Sunday Mass is even more important when classes are out for the summer. Take some time and enjoy other churches around us as you make your summer plans. Get out of your regular “pew” and experience the church from a different perspective. Don’t forget to take your “Passport to Heaven” with you and take pictures of the churches you visit along the way. Send the pictures to cff@mdssf.org. The children will share their pictures and stories when we have our beginning of the school year Mass in October. Questions of the Week:
If Jesus sounds like he means business in this reading, he does! What matters most to him in the whole world is to make people understand that the reign of God is at hand. This is why he sends his disciples out in every direction. The harvest (people who have not heard the good news of the gospel) is ready right now. Jesus instructs the disciples to go quickly and travel light. They are to spread his peace, cure the sick, and proclaim the reign of God. Today, we might reflect on that same question that Jesus asks, “Who do you say that I am?” imagine for a moment that Jesus sent you and a partner into your town or city to proclaim God's kingdom. How would you do it? What would you do first? Is there a way you could do this very thing in reality? Why or why not?

Our Rectory and CFF Offices will be closed on Monday, July 4th. May everyone have an enjoyable and safe holiday weekend!

Children’s Liturgy of the Word -
Every first and third Sunday of the month during the 10:00am Mass, children in grades K to 5 are invited after the opening prayer, before the first reading, to come forward towards the altar, receive a blessing by the celebrant and dismissed to listen to the Word of God in a language that is appropriate for their comprehension. They gather in the center isle following the lectionary which raised high. Once they have gathered in the Grade 1 room with the catechists, the Liturgy of the Word is proclaimed, a reflection is shared with the children and after the Prayer of the Faithful, they return for the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The next Children’s Liturgy of the Word gathering will be on July 17. We will not have Children’s Liturgy of the Word on July 3rd.

Donors recognition plaques in the vestibule for our completed projects:

“Witnesses to Freedom” is the theme of the U.S. bishops’ fifth annual Fortnight for Freedom, which opens June 21, the vigil of the feast of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, and closes on Independence Day, July 4. The Fortnight for Freedom is “based on love of country and of liberty,” according to the USCCB. The aim is to “encourage Catholics, other Christians and all people of good will to set aside two weeks to reflect on religious freedom,” it said. The annual observance also gets to the heart of what Pope Francis said during his visit last September to the United States, the USCCB said, noting the pope “encouraged us to nurture, promote and defend the precious gift of religious freedom.”
